VOLUME CVII.--NO. 209. ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 30, 1906. PRICE 2 CENTS.

NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

Let the greatest athlete have dyspepsia and his muscles would soon fail. Physical strength is derived from food. If a man has insufficient food he loses strength. If he has no food he dies. Food is converted into nutrition through the stomach and bowels. It depends on the strength of the stomach to what extent food eaten is digested and assimilated. People can die of starvation who have abundant food to eat, when the stomach and its associate organs of digestion and nutrition do not perform their duty. Thus the stomach is really the vital organ of the body. If the stomach is "weak" the body will be weak also, because it is upon the stomach the body relies for its strength. And as the body, considered as a whole, is made up of its several members and organs, so the weakness of the body as a consequence of "weak" stomach will be distributed among the organs which compose the body. If the body is weak because it is ill-nourished that physical weakness will be found in all the organs—heart, liver, kidneys, etc. The liver will be torpid and inactive, giving rise to biliousness, loss of appetite, weak nerves, feeble or irregular action of heart, palpitation, dizziness, headache, backache and kindred disturbances and weaknesses.

Mr. Louis Pare, of Quebec, writes: "For years after my health began to fail, my head grew dizzy, eyes pained me, and my stomach was sore all the time, while everything I would eat would seem to lie heavy like lead on my stomach. The doctors claimed that it was sympathetic trouble due to dyspepsia, and prescribed for me, and although I took their powders regularly yet I felt no better. My wife advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—and stop taking the doctor's medicine. She bought me a bottle and we soon found that I began to improve, so I kept up the treatment. I took on flesh, my stomach became normal, the digestive organs worked perfectly and I soon began to look like a different person. I can never cease to be grateful for what your medicine has done for me and I certainly give it highest praise."

Don't be wheedled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good."

To gain knowledge of your own body—in sickness and health—send for the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A book of 1008 pages. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

DAMAGE BY FLOODS.

Rain fell at Petersburg all day yesterday and last night it was still raining, with every indication of no abatement. The Appomattox river is rising steadily, and the freshet is the most severe experienced within the past ten years. Water is pouring into the first floors of the buildings off the wharves at Petersburg, and also in the stores and residences on River street between Third street and the old market house. All of the meadows on the Chesterfield side of the river are submerged, and the crops on the lowlands along the river have been covered or washed out. Reports received from Farmville and the upper counties are to the effect that the Appomattox river is rising and that it is still raining there. This volume of water will cause a still greater rise in the river. The tracks of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway at Jarretts, Va., are under water, and trains have to run very slowly in passing that point. In consequence of the embankment of this road just outside of Petersburg, where work on the diversion of the Appomattox river is in progress, showing signs of weakening, all trains are run around the belt line.

A great number of county bridges have been carried away by the freshet, and the loss by the unprecedented rainfall will be immense.

It is impossible to accurately estimate the damage to the general crops throughout the Petersburg section by reason of the heavy and continuous rains during the month of August, but it will be up in the hundreds of thousands. The damage to the tobacco crop alone, it is said, will be over $200,000, and the injury to the peanut crop will be equally as large, if not greater. The corn crop is seriously injured, and it is believed that $100,000 will not cover the loss.

Estimated conservatively, the damage in Frederick county growing out of the present excessively wet weather and the violent rainstorms and cloudbursts that have deluged the Winchester section for the past six weeks, will reach fully $50,000. At least one half of the peach crop, which is now being moved to the market, has been ruined by the rain. Thousands of dollars' damage has resulted in the roads being washed, and farm lands have been inundated by floods and injured to a great extent. In different parts of Winchester a dozen springs, from which pure water is bubbling, were found in the streets yesterday. They are due to the continued rains and floods. The cellars of many residences and business places are filled with water that is nearly on a level with the sidewalks.

Bookbinders Suspended.

The announcement that Public Printer Stillings has suspended for 30 days, an employe of the bindery named Fred Schlick, renews interest in one of the most curious of the many difficulties that has beset the Public Printer since he took charge.

Schlick was suspended for "misconduct," and his misconduct consisted in his interfering and viciously abusing a fellow workman in the bindery, who had aroused his wrath because he had done more work than Schlick thought was sufficient for one day.

The bookbinders in the government printing office have bitterly resented a recent order from the acting foreman of the bindery, considerably increasing the amount of work which the bookbinders are expected to do each day. Their union has taken formal action and negotiations are now pending between representatives of the union and the Public Printer. Mr. Schlick, however, could not wait until the Public Printer and the union had settled the matter between them. He remonstrated with a fellow-workman and when called upon to apologize for the abusive language he had used he refused and was accordingly suspended.

Another bookbinder, named Alvin Tanner, is also under suspension. Tanner refused to do the amount of work which Foreman Ashton ordered him to do. Tanner was immediately placed upon the pay-roll of the union, so that he will receive from the union the same sum of money he would earn if he were at work.

Anti-dispensary Candidate Wins.

The latest returns indicate that M. F. Ansley, the anti-dispensary candidate for governor of South Carolina, will have nearly a majority on one ballot over seven opponents. Lyon, the anti-dispensary attorney for attorney general, is elected on the first ballot. Senator Tillman was scratched about 30 per cent., although without opposition. The legislature is in doubt, the House being largely anti-dispensary. All congressmen have been nominated for re-election. J. T. Johnson, J. D. Patterson, W. Wyatt Aiken and D. F. Finley were the only congressmen with formal opposition.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college, said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains; no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope or charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 601 Kingstreet.

Caught by Balloon Anchor.

Caught by the anchor of a balloon and whirled 500 feet in the air over the heads of 5,000 spectators, Mrs. Roper, of Brooklyn, was seriously but not fatally hurt yesterday at the Ulster County Fair at Ellenville, N. Y. A professional woman aeronaut, who has been making daily ascensions at the fair grounds in a hot-air balloon, had just entered the car yesterday afternoon and was about to give the order "cast off" when the balloon broke loose and sailed upwards with the anchor trailing. Before the bystanders could scatter the anchor fluke caught in the dress of a woman and she was whipped up into the air, screaming. As soon as the woman in the balloon caught sight of her involuntary fellow-voyager, swinging far below at the end of the rope, she at once pulled the safety cord. The balloon, which by that time had reached an altitude of 500 feet, quickly descended and reached ground a quarter of a mile from the point of ascension. Mrs. Roper struck the ground heavily, and when picked up was found to be unconscious and to have sustained fractures of the shoulder, ankle and several fingers.

A Healing Gospel.

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints, and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price only 50c.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, AUG. 30, 1906.

THE INTEREST manifested throughout the entire country in Mr. William J. Bryan during the past few months is significant, and shows that he has in no way lost his influence with the American people. In fact, the elaborate preparations for his reception in New York after his trip around the world shows plainly that he is maintaining his position on the crest of the same wave which has kept him prominently before the American people and the world for the past decade. The courteous manner in which he has been received and entertained in the old world shows that his reputation is by no means confined to his own country. From present indications he is the most prominent candidate before the democratic party for president of the United States. Previous to his entry into the presidential race Mr. Bryan had begun to attract attention. An earnest advocate of the free silver theory, as were also a number of prominent republican Senators and Members of the House of Representatives at the time, he exploited that scheme until it was eventually made the most prominent plank in the democratic platform with Mr. Bryan as the standard-bearer. The republicans, who had virtually begotten free silver, repudiated their own offspring, and by the use of literally barrels of money, furnished by trusts, nurtured and fattened by the tariff, railroads and insurance companies, succeeded in temporarily diverting the tidal wave which was rolling over the country. Free silver is, however, no longer an issue in the United States, but the present tariff laws, the arbitrary acts of the present executive and many other objectionable features of the republican administration furnish any number of planks for a sensible and logical democratic platform which will appeal to the conservative members of the party as well as to many in the ranks of the republican organization. The reception to Mr. Bryan in New York is the result of no spasmodic movement, but it had been in preparation for some time.

FOUR THOUSAND people yesterday gathered around a monument to John Brown at Ossawattomie, Kansas, and sang "The Star-Spangled Banner," after which the United States flag was unfurled from an eighty-foot flag pole. The chapter in the history of this country which relates to John Brown could be told in a few words. In early life he adopted two means of obtaining cheap notoriety—religion and the slavery question. Like many others not born with the proper check wheels of life, or whose heads soon become turned from the fact that they were never screwed on properly at first, he imagined he saw in the Bible confirmation of the many chimeras which danced in his brain, and fiaally appeared in Virginia as a red-handed murderer. He and his corporal's guard of deluded followers were immediately overpowered and executed, while bells were tolled in northern cities and indignation meetings were being held on Boston Common. There seems to be some who still desire to keep the ugly incident of his brief and unenviable career before the world, but his memory has long ago become obscured by more important events which have occurred since he met a felon's death. Some persons in the United States have never become weaned from the old fanatic. The New York Tribune, edited by the late Horace Greeley at the time Brown flourished, was instrumental in inspiring the fanatic to come to Virginia on his crazy mission, and today that paper has the following among other things to say concerning him:

> It is void of value to us that, just as the name of Lee can be inscribed in the Hall of Fame with national approval, so the name and deeds of Ossawattomie Brown—whom Lee guarded to the scaffold—can be commemorated without any of the passions of the past, and that he can be regarded, whatever his intrinsic merits, as an historic figure, who played his part in the prologue of our nation's greatest tragedy with a grim earnestness amply befitting the scene, and who in the end lent a new dignity to death by his own unsurpassed tenderness and fortitude in its presence.

One of his acts of "tenderness" consisted in kissing a negro baby while on his march to the scaffold. The suggestion that this murderous madman be placed in a niche alongside of one of the greatest and purest Americans ever born is so ridiculous that comment would be useless.

THOSE who have criticized the Czar for what they regard as his lack of resolution will pay a tribute to his chivalric heroism in attending the funeral of General Min. That officer had been done to death by revolutionary assassins, and for the Czar to attend his funeral was not merely to expose himself, to the dangers which in these murderous days lurk everywhere outside his fortress palace. It was also in an especial sense to identify himself with the man whom the Reds had hated and slain, and thus to challenge a reflection of their enmity against himself and the repetition of General Min's fate upon his own person. It was a fine exhibition of the sense of noblesse oblige if nothing more, says the New York Tribune, and it will give rise to admiration, mingled with a certain regret at his majesty's failure to exhibit equal intrepidity and determination in the pursuance of policies of state.

A DISPATCH from Philadelphia today states that it has been ascertained at the coroner's inquest that President Hipple, of the Real Estate Trust Company, committed suicide by blowing out his brains previous to the closing of the doors of that institution a few days ago. This is the second official of financial institutions in this country which have met disaster during the past few weeks who has killed himself rather than face exposure. We live in an age of "frenzied finance," and many plunge headlong to destruction in the wild rush to keep in prominent places in the procession.

BOOKER WASHINGTON, addressing the the National Negro Business League at Atlanta, Ga., last night, expressed the opinion that in no other section can the negro find opportunity equal to that presented to him in the South. He urged negro leaders to see that the criminal negro is got rid of, declaring the members of the race are committing too many crimes. This is the best advice he could have given, but will it be heeded?

AFTER A prolonged obscuration the sun made his appearance this evening and it is hoped he may see fit to remain on this side of the clouds for some days to come. Hats off to the sun.

How to entice hens to lay more eggs is the delicate problem which the Agriculture Department has set for itself. The Bureau of Animal Industry has employed Robert R. Slocum at a handsome salary to have charge of this new work, and besides seventy-five as chipper White Plymouth Rocks as man ever laid eyes on, Mr. Slocum will have the assistance of a few well paid assistants. For fear too much time would be paid to the social side of life, the hens will be taken to Baltimore instead of being permitted to enjoy the gay whirl at the capital. This is entirely a task for profit, the department taking the ground that a very slight increase in the average egg would be of vast importance to the poultryman. First, Mr. Slocum's pullets will be asked to show whether mash should be fed to hens moist or dry. Then, the department wants to know whether it is best to feed hens all they want, that is by the hopper method, or just as much as man thinks they should eat. That is by the meal method. Regardless of Lincoln's maxim about the divided house, Mr Slocum will divide his. There will be three pens. In the first there will be a breakfast of cracked grain, and dinner of the same. For lunch there will be moistened mash. Breakfast and dinner in pen No. 2 will be the same as in No. 1., but the mash will be served dry for lunch. In No. 3, the chickens will be fed by hoppers. Incidentally it is explained that Plymouth Rocks were chosen merely for reasons of convenience.

U. S. Minister Merry, at San Jose, Costa Rica, in a dispatch to the State Department announces that the government of that country has invited the delegates of Guatemala, San Salvador and Honduras, who have been commissioned to prepare a treaty of peace, amity and commerce, to hold their sessions at San Jose beginning Saturday, September 15th, the anniversary of American independence. The government of San Salvador has already accepted the invitation.

Gen. Jas. F. Smith, the new Governor General of the Philippines, who was stranded at Honolulu when the steamer Manchuria went ashore while on his way to Manila to be inaugurated, managed to get his trunks ashore from the Manchuria in time to permit him to take passage on the army transport Logan which touched at Hawaii at an appropriate moment. Word to this effect has just been received by the Quartermaster General's office. As the trunks contained the coronation or inauguration robes of the Smith family, and as General Smith could not have appeared at Manila without these necessary appenages, the news of their safe transposition to the Logan has relieved the minds of officials here who were afraid that the inauguration ceremonies at Manila might have to be postponed to some later date than Sept. 20th, the original time set.

Teachers as well as parents, and possibly pupils, in the District of Columbia are greatly wrought up over the announcement of Superintendent Chancellor, of the District schools, that phonetic spelling will be taught in the schools of Washington. The teachers, it is said, had laughingly discussed the subject, little thinking that the superintendent would ever seriously consider introducing the system. He has only recently come to Washington, and they did not know just how much of a cuckoo he was.

Miss Eulalie Puckett, 35 years old, of 1132 Twelfth street northwest, employed as a clerk in the Department of Agriculture, is being held at the House of Detention for alleged forgery. It is charged that she was about to negotiate a loan of $6,000 on property which she represented to be her own, but which Frank Sprigg Perry, Assistant United States District Attorney, claims belongs to his mother, Mrs. Fannie Sprigg Perry, of Natchez, Miss. Mrs. Perry is the wife of Rev. Josiah Perry and a daughter of Rev. D. F. Sprigg, formerly of Alexandria.

Nearly a score of complaints arising under the new railroad rate law have already been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission. A number of these were made public today. They came from all parts of the country.

Confederate Pensions.

Four thousand checks to pensioners under the acts of 1900 and 1903 will be mailed September 1. The force of clerks is now engaged in making out the checks and they are being gotten ready for the mails as fast as possible. The checks are being made out by congressional districts, beginning with the first, and just as fast as they can be made out, they will be mailed. It is needless for those who are on the lists to write to the officers till they have had a chance to mail the checks. There are some 11,000 to be mailed after the first batch is sent out. About $160,000 will be distributed under the two acts mentioned above. Other pensioners were paid during the spring of this year.—[Richmond News Leader.

News of the Day.

A dispatch from London says that Lady Charlotte Campbell-Bannerman, wife of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, Premier of England, died today.

Charging breech of promise to marry her, Miss Madeline Grauer, a chorus girl employed at the New York Hippodrome, today filed suit for $15,000 damages against Willis J. Livingston, a young society man of the capital. She declares that he has ruined her life and reputation, and caused her to be ostracised by her companions before the footlights.

John Newsome, who was shot through the breast Monday afternoon in front of the Southern station in Macon, Ga., died yesterday, and Joe Curtis, who is alleged to have used the pistol, is dying in the City Hospital. Curtis was taken from the operating table shortly after noon. Three-fourths of his skull has been removed, and attending physicians say there is no chance for his recovery, The four women arrested for participating in the fight have been released.

Forty representatives of packing houses throughout the United States were in secret conference this morning with Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and A. D. Melvin, head of the Bureau of Animal Industry, in regard to the adoption of labels for the finished product of their packing houses. The department is considering the proposition to permit the packers to blot out the old description of canned goods and to paste thereupon a description which will meet the approval of the inspectors. This temporary labeling would permit many firms which may find it inconvenient to prepare permanent labels by October 1, to continue to carry on an interstate business with ease.

Perhaps with the view of hastening American intervention the Cuban revolutionists have begun to attack American owned property in Cuba. Only one American plantation has so far been attacked but it may be the precursor of others. The State Department today received a dispatch from the manager of the Constancia, a large sugar estate near Cienfuegos, owned entirely by United States capital, announcing that that property had been raided by revolutionists and that several horses had been taken. He also said that the usual steps were being taken to ask for necessary protection for that and similarly situated plantations. The Department at once cabled to Mr. Sleeper, who is in charge of the American legation at Havana, instructing him to lay matter before the Cuban government and to request that measure be taken to protect American property.

Royal Arch Masons.

The Royal Arch Masons of Virginia will celebrate their one hundredth anniversary next year when they hold their annual conclave at the Jamestown Exposition.

The occasion will also be a homecoming of the Royal Arch Masons, who received their first charter in Norfolk nearly a century ago.

The conclave of 1907 will be held in October and the special day will be celebrated on the fourth Tuesday of that month. The occasion will be an elaborate and interesting one, although the details have not yet been arranged.

The Royal Arch Masons were organized in Norfolk, but have held their annual conclaves here but a few times in the ninety-nine years. When the last grand conclave was held in Richmond in 1905 Messrs. W. H. Sargeant, jr., H. Rodgers and Ava Tatem were the representatives from Norfolk.

They made a strong fight for the 1907 conclave to be held at the Jamestown Exposition and won, with Richmond as the next highest bidder.

There are now nearly 4,500 Royal Arch Masons in the State and it is believed that nearly all of them will attend the one-hundredth conclave.—[Norfolk Landmark.

Virginians Arrested.

Uncertain whether murder was intended when Lizzie Lister was attacked, after a drunken carouse, three men were committed without bail in Philadelphia yesterday morning to await the result of the woman's injuries. She is unconscious at the Pennsylvania Hospital with a fractured skull. The men in jail are William Carlin, of Richmond, Va.; Frank Quigley, of Philadelphia, and Clifton Kitchain, of Norfolk, Va. The woman was found at Delaware avenue and Pine street by Craig, a policeman of the Second and Christian streets station. Her hair was matted in blood and a long welt across her forehead gave rise to the suspicion that she had been felled by a blow from a blunt instrument. The woman had been one of a party taken out by Harry Richards, the captain of a pleasure launch, the Mascot. According to the riverman, the entire crowd was under the influence of liquor when they engaged him to take them for a sail, and drank more liquor after they got aboard.

Missing Virginian.

Ben C. Tyler, a well-known young Virginian and a native of Prince William county, while in an unbalanced state of mind from overwork, disappeared from his home in Perry, N. Y., on August 16, and his family and friends, after a search lasting from the time of his disappearance up to the present, have been unable to find him. Mr. Tyler is a son of the late Robert H. Tyler, of Prince William county, and is a first cousin of W. H. Tyler, of Washington, D. C., general passenger agent of the Southern Railway. For several years Ben Tyler has lived in Bellaire, Ohio, where he became the head of the plate-mill department of the Carnegie Steel Company in that city. Recently he resigned his position with the Carnegie Company to enter the mercantile business in Perry, N. Y., moving to that city on August 1. Sixteen days later he disappeared. It is thought that Mr. Tyler has started to walk to his home in Virginia.

Infernal Machine on Steamer.

With apparent motive a dastardly attempt was made to blow up the big iron freight steamer Eagle Point, plying between London and Philadelphia, while she lay on the north side of the grain elevator of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway, at the foot of Williams street, Port Richmond, yesterday afternoon. The steamer was only saved by a fraction of a second, as the infernal machine that was discovered in the rear hold exploded just after it had been thrown overboard by Captain Robertson, casting an immense volume of water into the air and drenching the motley crowd of stevedores and laborers who stood, wide-eyed and open-mouthed, watching the innocent looking box disappear beneath the waves.

Virginia News.

The grape crop of Albemarle county is more extensive this season than for several years, and the fruit is very fine, but owing to the extreme wet weather but little of the crop has been marketed.

Miss Susie Shotwell, daughter of J. G. Shotwell, of Culpeper county, was married a few days ago at the home of the bride to Jefferson Q. Frazier, of Sperryville, Rev. D. F. Grimsley, officiating.

Miss Pauline Carter Blackwell and Mr. Wilmer Blackwell were married at the residence of Mr. William Garth, "Ingleside," in Albemarle county yesterday. Mr. Blackwell is a native of Warrenton.

The eighth annual exhibit of the Warrenton Horse Show Association opened yesterday. Though the weather was disagreeable and the roads leading to the town are in bad condition, the start was favorable and the attendance was good. The show closed this evening.

J. B. Slater, merchant, doing business near Merry Point, Lancaster county, committed suicide early yesterday morning by shooting himself through the temple. A letter was found on his person bearing date of Monday and addressed to his wife, telling of his busines affairs and saying things seemed against him.

MR. BRYAN.

William Jennings Bryan, with Mrs. Bryan and their daughter Grace, arrived at New York yesterday afternoon on the North German Lloyd steamship Prinzess Irene. The liner was met down the bay by the 150 Nebraskans who had come to join in the reception and by a small party of Mr. Bryan's friends who were on board Edward F. Goltra's yacht Illini. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan left the Prinzess Irene at quarantine, going first to the tugboat which contained a portion of the tumultuous Nebraskan delegation. There he was met by Mayor Jim Dahlman, of Omaha, and greeted with other attentions which were intended to let him know how glad the "home folks" were to welcome him back. From the Nebraska tugboat Mr. Bryan went on the yacht Illini to Stapleton, S. I., where he was escorted to the home of Mr. Lewis Nixon, where he will stay, together with Mrs Bryan, until he starts for Manhattan this afternoon for the formal reception.

Mr. Bryan had little to say to the newspaper men who met him down the bay. He was asked whether he had, as reported since he left this country, offered himself as a candidate for the democratic nomination for president.

"No," he replied, "I have not announced myself as a candidate. I wrote a letter to former Senator James K. Jones a few weeks ago. You will find that it is not an announcement. I said that I would accept the nomination under certain conditions."

"Has your attitude changed any since you wrote that letter?"

"No."

A conference of leading democrats was held at Mr. Nixon's house last night. At conference were Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, Ohio; National Committeemen Campau, of Michigan; Mack, of New York, and Gen. L. Victor Baughman, of Maryland; William Hoge, president of the Commercial Travelers' Anti-Trust League, who discussed the plans for tomorrow night's reception; Alexander Troup, of Connecticut, who explained the detail of the programme arranged for Mr. Bryan's welcome to New Haven on Friday; Robert Davis, of Jersey City, who explained the arrangements for the Jersey City welcome next Saturday evening; Harry W. Walker, of the reception committee for New York; August Thomas, Edward F. Goltra and Mayor Brown, of Lincoln, Neb.

Receiver in Charge.

Receiver George H. Earle, jr., yesterday evening qualified and took charge of the affairs of the Philadelphia Real Estate Trust Company.

He announced after a conference with the directors that, in his opinion, the bank would be able to resume business in a short time.

All the trust funds appear to be intact and none of the other Philadelphia banks are said to be involved.

Efforts are being continued to raise a sufficient amount of money to put the trust company on its feet.

It is probable that President Hipple's death will be investigated.

Young Hipple was nearly mobbed.

As treasurer of the General Presbyterian Assembly President Hipple handled more than $1,000,000 annually, and various other church funds were deposited with the trust company.

The deceased stood high in the church, abhorred the use of tobacco and liquor, would not even read the Sunday newspapers and was lavish in his character.

Tragedy of the Plains.

J. S. Mercham, of Portales, N. M., while driving across the desert near Kenna, Monday found a covered wagon, with two dead men on the seat, and four mules dead in their harness. Mercham made no investigation, but hurried to the nearest telegraph office and sent to the Sheriff there the facts of his discovery. Officers started at once for the scene, carrying medicines and a small supply of nourishing food, fearing that inside the wagon there might be women and children who are sick or starving.

Everybody's Magazine for September which has been received from the publishers in New York will be of interest to every class of readers. Its leading article tells of a "City of Special Schools" in New England for mechanics, busy mothers, backward children, etc. How Australia is governed by laboring men is described in "Soldiers of the Common Good." Three articles throw a searching light on the American life of today—"Bucket-Shop Sharks," "The Dollar mark and the Hall-mark of Fame" and "How the American Wage-earner spends his Income." The eleven short stories in this issue would justify the claim of a "special fiction number."

Luckiest Man in Arkansas.

"I'm the luckiest man in Arkansas," writes H. L. Stanley, of Bruno, "since the restoration of my wife's health after five years of continuous coughing and bleeding from the lungs, and I owe my good fortune to the world's greatest medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which I know from experience will cure consumption if taken in time. My wife improved with first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' druggists. 50c and $1.00. Today's Telegraphic News

New York, Aug. 30.—William Jennings Bryan is resting today on the steam yacht Illini which swings at anchor off Stapleton, Staten Island. He is husbanding his strength for the reception tonight, when, for over two hours, he will forecast in a speech, the issue in the coming campaign. Mr. Bryan was in good spirits today. He said he had a restful night on the yacht, and was to get away from the rolling sea, which he says made him feel uncomfortable. Mr. Nixon entertained Mr. Bryan at dinner, which was attended by a number of prominent democrats. The Enigkeit singing society, thirty strong, sang songs in front of Mr. Nixon's house and the Nebraskan made a short speech.

After the conference in which Mr. Bryan was made acquainted with the latest developments and political traps set by his enemies, Mr. Bryan, Mrs. Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Goltra left in an automobile for the yacht landing where they went aboard the Illini. Mr. Bryan was still silent on politics today. He expressed his appreciation of the kindness of President Roosevelt in facilitating the landing of his family and himself down the bay.

Mr. Bryan wont have a minute to himself from the time he sets foot on the Battery seawall, at four o'clock this afternoon, when he will be tendered the freedom of the city until he leaves for New Haven, tomorrow morning. The reception committee has gobbled up every minute of Bryan's time and filled it up with parades, receptions, and as many dinners as he can possibly eat between five o'clock this afternoon and tomorrow morning.

The officials will begin with the landing at the Battery and the parade up Broadway. It has been anticipated that there will be only seven carriages in the parade according to the arrangement, but seven lusty Mayors of Nebraska say they will be found in the procession, programme or no programme. The triumphal march up Broadway will be the least of Bryan's troubles for at the Victoria Hotel he will have to shake the hand of every mother's son composing the shouting part of the State delegation.

Mr. Bryan will get off easy if he makes several impromptu speeches at the Victoria Hotel. Mr. Bryan will then take dinner and the hospitality committee is having a lively time selecting those who shall have the privilege of dining with the Nebraskan. If all were invited who indicates their desire to break bread with Bryan, the feast would resemble a barbecue.

The ceremonies at the garden will follow and an over flow meeting will be held outside Madison Square Garden. Long after midnight Mr. Bryan will be escorted to his hotel, where there will be another impromptu reception. A late supper and Bryan will go to bed to rest for an equal strenuous day tomorrow when he goes to New Haven and Bridgeport. Mr. Bryan's New England trip will only take one day. He will leave tomorrow morning for New Haven at 10 o'clock. There will be a lunch and speech making at the Music Hall, and Bryan will then leave for Bridgeport where he will be the guest of Senator McNeil. On Saturday, he will leave for Newark, and that afternoon will go to Jersey City. This completes Mr. Bryan's programme in the east. When he will return west has not been determined.

New York, Aug. 30.—Cornered on the deck of Lewis Nixon's steam house boat, the Loudoun, this afternoon, Wm. Jennings Bryan capitulated to a besieging army of newspaper men and granted the first Yankee interview of which he has been able to relieve his mind for nearly a year. After first stating that he would talk on any subject, except "persons and politics," Mr. Bryan devoted an hour to the two topics which he had placed under the ban. Mr. Bryan said he had heard nothing definite of the scrap between President Roosevelt, Speaker Cannon, Senator Tillman and ex-Senator Chandler, in which the lie was freely given on both sides. "The truth is," said Mr. Bryan, "that I do not care a great deal for scraps. But I do like good discussion. I want to deny that yarn emanating from the Philippines," said Mr. Bryan, "to the effect that a donkey over there had thrown me. The situation in Russia is indeed a serious one," responded Mr. Bryan, when questioned regarding conditions in the Czar's domain. "No one can foretell with any certainty what the immediate future of Russia will be.

No expression could be secured from Mr. Bryan on the matter of the rate bill which he admitted, he had not given full consideration. He declared, however, that just as soon as he could get time, he intended to go into it thoroughly, and that he would have opinions on it at a later date. Mr. Bryan was taken aboard Mr. Nixon's houseboat shortly after 10 o'clock for his meeting with the newspaper men. After he went back aboard the Illini on which he remained until landed at the Battery at 4 o'clock.

William Jennings Bryan will sound the battle cry of the democratic party tonight. In a speech to be delivered at the big welcome at Madison Square Garden, the Nebraskan will forecast the issues that will be fought from coast to coast, in the next presidential campaign. En voyage from Gibraltar Mr. Bryan prepared this speech which he regards as one of the most important in his career. It is about fifteen thousand words in length and will take him two hours to deliver. While Mr. Bryan submitted to only one interview of length, while on board he frequently dropped remarks in short conversations which clearly indicated his thought on the issues of the day. The Nebraskan did make it very clear that free silver, because of the tremendous gold production, was no longer an issue. Mr. Bryan, it is said, regards government ownership of railroads and public utilities as a necessity. The question of trusts is still unsolved, and Mr. Bryan told a friend on the Prinzess Irene that the country must look to the democrats for the solution of the trust issue which, he hoped, went hand in hand with the question of tariff reduction. All these questions Mr. Bryan indicated he would touch on in his speech tonight. In order that his views might have the fullest expression Mr. Bryan refrained from talking politics on his arrival here as, he said, he did not care to destroy the effect of his speech.

DIED.

At the residence of her nephew, Mr. George S. French, on Thursday, August 30, at 11 o'clock, Miss LUCY WILLIAMS. The funeral will take place from the residence, No. 105 north Alfred street, Saturday evening at 5 o'clock. Interment private.

Hipple Committed Suicide.

Philadelphia, Aug. 30.—A mild sensation was created in financial and legal circles this morning, when it became known that John C. Bell, District Attorney for Philadelphia, had been sharply criticised in connection with certain matters pertaining to the preliminary investigation of the tangled real estate company. Mr. Bell has been called in by certain lawyers in an advisory capacity, and this fact aroused the ire of a young lawyer named F. T. Tobin. The latter sent the District Attorney a caustic letter. In it he states that he believes the failure of the company was due to possible criminal neglect on the part of some person or persons. Inasmuch as these persons might be called upon to face criminal charges and it would be Mr. Bell's duty to prosecute them, the writer states he deems it his duty to the public generally to suggest that Mr. Bell should not appear as private counsel for any one, but confine himself to his sole duty as prosecutor. Mr. Bell refused to make any comment on the young lawyer's suggestion.

Coroner Wing, who held the inquest on Hipple's body, made the announcement this morning that Hipple committed suicide, It was afterwards learned that Hipple blew out his brains.

This explains why his closest friends were not permitted to review the remains. It is possible that the body will be disinterred and a verdict rendered in accordance with the facts. The coroner withheld the information fearing that Mr. Hipple's death would cause a run on the bank but such action was not done by any one connected with the company but of his own free will.

The pertinent question most persistently asked by the public is, "How was Mr. Hipple enabled to loan $8,000,000, as is stated by John H. Converse, without the knowledge of the directors; and furthermore, how do the directors explain the lack of knowledge of affairs that their positions required them to be familiar with?"

Russian Affairs.

Moscow, Aug. 30.—The only prevailing custom of the Western plains of America, "Shoot first and investigate afterward," apparently is to be established as a part of the governmental plan for suppressing revolutionists in this the ancient city of Russia. Intimation of it is given in an order just issued by the prefect of the city to all policemen and the result has been to throw the community into a spasm of fear. The prefect in an order to his subordinates bluntly declares that the reason so many officers have been killed or wounded by revolutionists is due to their own negligence in taking proper precautions. Henceforth officers are instructed to use their arms energetically to dispose of any who may try to abuse them. Citizens who may have interpreted this order as giving policemen virtual license to kill at their own pleasure are naturally alarmed. Consequently the greatest fear is felt lest the officers shall take the prefect at his word and inaugurate a reign of bloodshed on their own account and turn the city into a shambees.

Geneva, Aug. 30.—Active steps are being taken by Russian revolutionists to organize revolutionaries in all European centres for a concerted attack upon the Czar and members of the imperial family, as well as bureaucratic supporters, who are to be done away with, and the Russian terrorists are seeking help to carry out their plans from their friends in other countries.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 30.—Another Russian loan is to be made to enable the government to raise money for the relief of the famine sufferers in many provinces where there have been crop failures. An imperial ukase issued today authorizes the Russian Minister of Finance to issue four per cent. rentes to the nominal value of five million pounds to raise money for this relief.

Expires at Mother's Bier.

New York, Aug. 30.—With his wife dead after a trying illness, his young daughter the victim of a broken heart, expiring on her mother's coffin at the funeral, and his own years and sorrow enfeebling him, Adolph Baumont, a wealthy retired dry goods merchant in Brooklyn, was found early yesterday lying unconscious on a stonepaved court 35 feet below his bedroom window. He was found to be suffering from a broken arm and internal injuries which may cause his death.

Mrs. Baumont died on Monday after a long battle with gangrene poisoning. The funeral services Tuesday were barely begun when Miss Lucy Marie Baumont, the eighteen-year-old daughter of the house, gave way to her grief. Rising from her chair as a clergyman intoned the funeral services she made her way to her mother's coffin, threw herself on it and sobbed piteously. Loving hands stretched out to support the girl, but her sobs ceased suddenly and she slipped to the floor unconscious.

Before Dr. Sheppard, who lives near by, could aid her the young woman was dead. Mr Baumont, who is 65 years old, refused to remain in the house of death, and went to the home of a married daughter in State street, where he retired apparently cheerful. Early yesterday morning passers-by saw him appear at a third-story window, pale and haggard. While they looked Mr. Baumont toppled from the opening to the stone court. He was taken to Cumberland Street Hospital.

The President's Callers.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 30.—President Roosevelt is holding a conference today with Postmaster General Cortelyou. Departmental affairs with reference to a number of vacancies to be filled were discussed. It was said at the executive office that Mr. Cortelyou's visit had no bearing whatever on politics. The visit of Congressman Herbert Parsons to Sagamore Hill tomorrow is now the chief topic of gossip among the State politicans. Mr. Parsons is chairman of the New York county republican committee and one of the bitterest of anti-Odell men. As the President gave out a statement yesterday endorsing Mr. Parsons and all he stand for in persons and public life; it is said the conference tomorrow will resolve itself into a knifegrinding session with the former Governor as the subject for the blade.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Aug. 30.—The stock market ruled active throughout the first hour. The Hill and Harriman stocks and Chesapeake & Ohio were the most active in the trading. The extreme changes were generally made at just after the openings. In the last few minutes the good buying and selling was almost equally balanced but the supply of stocks gave traders confidence on the operations on the bear side and they were free sellers all around the room causing another reaction at the end of the first hour.

The Zion Conference

Cologne, Germany Aug. 30.—An unsuccessful effort to unite the two branches of Zionists who split a year ago over a question of where the intended colony to found a national state for Jews should be established has been brought to light during the present conference of Zion-Zionists now being held in this city. Neither side will give way in its position, the Zion-Zionists in asserting that Palestine is the only place for the establishment of the colony or the African Zionists who wished to accept the offer of the British goverament for territory to establish an autonomous government in Africa. The split in the organization occurred at the last Zionist conference held in Basle, Switzerland. Since then the breach has widened and each faction has proceeded on its own course. The Zion-Zionists have gained one important convert to their belief in Dr. Nordau. He was president of the conference last year, when the split in the organization occurred. Hitherto he has refrained from taking side with either faction. Now, however, he has come out with the Zion-Zionists and is attending the present conference. While the overtures of the Zion-Zionists to effect an agreement have failed, hope has not be abandoned that a reconciliation may be brought about some day. With the object in view, the conference has decided to do nothing which will in any way offend the African Zionists or will widen the breach between the two branches.

Two Attempts at Suicide.

New York, Aug. 30.—To have his sanity inquired into, Mason Bacon, aged 26, of Raleigh, N. C., has been committed to Bellevue Hospital. The young man had made two unsuccessful attempts late yesterday to commit suicide. First, Bacon jumped into the East river from a pier at the foot of Dover street, but was pulled out by a passerby. A short while later, he boarded a surface car on the Manhattan side of the Brooklyn bridge for the Brooklyn side. When near the New York tower, he jumped from the trolley car to the side of the bridge. Two young men followed him from the car and held him until the arrival of a policeman. He was arraigned before a magistrate and committed to Bellevue.

Will Contest Law.

Boston, Aug. 30.—That the new interstate commerce act, better known as the rate law, which went into effect yesterday, will not establish its jurisdiction over the coastwise steamship lines centreing in New York and Boston short of an appeal to the United States Supreme Court, was admitted in local steamship circles today. Although every endeavor has been made to proceed quietly, it is an open secret that preparations have for some time been underway to make an issue of the application of the rate law to the coastwise traffic.

Reception by the Langhornes.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 30.—Mr. Waldorf Astor, of London, and Mrs. Astor, who was Mrs. Langhorne Shaw, of Richmond, Va., together with Mrs. Astor's sister, Miss Nora Langhorne, held a handshaking feast at the Casino entrance this noon. They were piloted around by Eugene Higgins, the richest and best known bachelor in America. Asked if she was glad to be back in Newport, Mrs. Astor quickly answered: "Just too delighted for anything. We simply could not keep away any longer."

From Cuba.

Havana, Cuba, Aug. 30.—Two slight engagements between the loyaltists and insurgents are reported today.

Fifteen rurales who were guarding Calabazar, in Santa Clara province, were attacked today by fifty insurgents. The rurales fled with one man wounded. The othee brush occurred at Artemesi, Pinar del Rio province. No details of the first has been received. Nothing is known of the movement of the large armies of both sides in the province of Pinar del Rio.

Closed Its Doors.

Helena, Mont., Aug. 30.—The affairs of the Anaconda Real Estate and Insurance Company are under investigation by the state bank examiner, and the institution, which has been doing a general banking business and trust business, is closed. M. J. Fitzpatrick, head of the concern, died a few days ago. The company's liabilities will range from $50,000 to $100,000. G. S. Wisner, son-in-law of Fitzpatrick, is under arrest on a charge of grand larceny.

Mob Wrecked Jail.

Mobile, Ala., Aug. 30.—Armed mobs early today wrecked the jail here in an effort to capture Will Thompson, a negro, who is supposed to have confessed to assaulting several white girls. Several shots were fired and the sheriff and his deputies were overpowered after the iron doors of the jail had been battered in. The Sheriff saved the prisoner's life by spiriting him away before the mob came. Mobs are now searching for the negro.

More Shocks.

Valparaiso, Chile, Aug. 30.—Fresh earthquake shocks have been felt at Tacna and Arica and throughout that section of the country to the Peru frontier.

The residents of the region are in the greatest fear. Hundreds have left their homes and are sleeping in the public squares, while others have taken to the open country outside the town. Slight shocks continue at lengthening intervals.

In this state it is not necessary, to serve a five days' notice for eviction of a cold. Use the original laxative cough syrup, Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. No opiates. Sold by W. F. Creighton Co., 401 King street.

Chief of Police Murdered.

Suffolk, Va., Aug. 30.—A report from Bedford City, Va., is to the effect that the chief of police of that place was murdered today by a negro. The murderer is being pursued in the mountains by a posse accompanied by bloodhounds.

Miss Charlotte Dean, leading lady of the Valamont Park Stock Company, was crushed to death in an elevator at the Park Hotel at Williamsport, Pa., last night.

Elephant Captured.

Queenie, one of the herd of trained elephants that escaped from Luna Park about a week ago, was captured near Clifton station, on the Southern Railway Tuesday night. The animal was in a dense pine forest. The capture of the elephant was effected by P. W. Barlow, the trainer, and Dick Richards, Queenie's keeper, assisted by Joe Rose, a young Italian, who was employed as a laborer at the park, and Jim Young, colored, who had been engaged as a guide when the elephants made their break for liberty. The elephant was placed in a freight car, brought to the city and later led to the park. During Tuesday several hundred countrymen, with pitchforks, sticks, baseball bats, and stones had been chasing the brute until she was half wild with fright. After Barlow, however, had called her by name several times, she seems to recognize his voice and finally stood long enough for him to catch her by the ear and for Dick to get her by the tail. Ropes were utilized and after some trouble the beast submitted to capture.

Mr. Fendall Feted.

Another letter from City Engineer Fendall was received yesterday by Mayor Timanus. It was written from Vienna, where Mr. Fendall was entertained at dinner by Mr. Ernest Schneider, a member of the Austrian Parliament. The dinner was served on August 14 at Mr. Schneider's country place at Lengenlois. A number of invited guests were present to meet Mr. Fendall. All those present signed a souvenir card, which was sent to Mayor Timanus. Dr. Joseph Niemeyer, vice burgomaster of Vienna, entertained Mr. Fendall at a dinner in the city hall there and arranged to give him an insight into the paying question at Vienna. Mayor Timanus wrote to Mr. Schneider and Dr. Niemeyer thanking them for the kindness shown Mr. Fendall.—[Baltimore American.

Mr. Fendall's many friends in this city, his old home, will be glad to learn of the manner in which he is being feted abroad.

Ladies' Auxiliary.

The State convention of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians adjourned at Knights of Columbus Hall in Portsmouth, Tuesday afternoon. Next year's convention of the auxiliary will also be held in Portsmouth.

The following were elected officers of the auxiliary for the ensuing year:

Miss Agnes T. Ferriter, of Richmond, re-elected State president; Mrs. Mary Mulvey, of Portsmouth, State vice-president; Miss Margaret Hogan, of Richmond, re-elected State secretary; Mrs. Zora Hill, of Alexandria, State treasurer; Mrs. Mary McDonald, of Roanoke, sentinel; Miss Margaret Haley, of Newport News, sergeant-at-arms.

At the conclusion of the installation ceremonies the visiting members of the auxiliarw were entertained by the Portsmouth members.

Railroad Chartered.

The Northern Railroad of Virginia was chartered in Richmond yesterday by the State Corporation Commission. The proposed road is to run from some point in Frederick county, across Clarke, Loudoun, Fairfax and Alexandria counties (or city), to about opposite Washington or Georgetown. The capital stock of the company is from $5,000 to $100,000. The estimated length of the line will be 100 miles. Simon C. Martin, of Sparrows Point, Md., is president, with Wm. D. Allen, vice president; G. M. Armstrong, secretary-treasurer, and the following other incorporators; Harvey Middleton, W. A. Mason, Frank H. Sloan and Charles M. Ackerman.

Death of a Veteran Conductor.

Capt. William Elliott, one of the oldest and best-known conductors in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, died in Washington on Monday, and was buried yesterday. Captain Elliott was a native of Fauquier county, and was 63 years of age. He had been railroading for over 45 years. During the civil war he was employed on the old Orange and Alexandria Railroad, and after the war was in the employ of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. In 1876 he entered the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad and had been in charge of trains running between Baltimore and Washington.

River Notes.

The excursion season is drawing to a close, and the river steamers are now carrying but few passengers. During the past few days steamers making evening trips down the river have abandoned the same on account of rainy weather.

The barge Tioga, from Baltimore with fertilizer to the Bryant Fertilizer Company, has arrived.

The schooner Prowess, loaded with lumber by Smoot & Co., has sailed for the lower river.

The Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company is repairing their wharf at the foot of Prince street.

Opera House.

Peck's Bad Boy for over twenty years has more than held it own against all comers. The comedy will be seen at the Opera House on Saturday, September 1, matinee and night. It is the only authorized dramatization of ex-Governor George W. Peck's famous sketches from real life under the same title, and enjoys his hearty approval and indorsement. Rewritten, to admit of the effective introduction of additional mirth and mischief and a number of new specialties, it is heralded as the most comical action ever staged.

The Glass Works.

Many of the glass blowers who have been spending their annual summer vacation away have returned and operations at the four glass factories here will soon commence with, it is said, a fine prospect for a successful season. The Alexandria factory opens on September 1st, the Old Dominion on the 4th, the Belle Pre on the 10th and the Virginia about the 15th.

Personal.

Misses Mary and Hannah Lunt have returned to their home in this city after a pleasant visit of two weeks to Atlantic City.

Miss Mary Agnew, of Alexandria, is the guest of Miss Mary Berkeley. Miss Ethel King, of Alexandria, spent several days this week as the guest of Miss Jessie Divine.—[Leesburg Mirror.

Miss Holmes Paulding, of Washington, is at Mrs. George B. Stone's. Mrs. M. Champe Carter Peyton and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maish Shepperson, of Alexandria, are with the Misses Saunders, on Waterloo Pike.—[Warrenton Virginian.

Mr. George Francis, of this city, left a few days ago for Panama, where he will be employed.

Mrs O. F. Carter has returned from Red Bank, N. J, where she spent the summer.

Mr. J. A. Marshall and family have returned from the Sweet Chalybeate Springs, where they spent the summer.

Rev. P. P. Phillips has returned from Spring Lake Beach, N. J., where he spent his vacation.

Dr. T. M. Jones has returned from a visit to Markham.

Mr. Edwin Lee Naylor, formerly of this city, but now employed by the Philapelphia Transit Railway Co., is on a visit to his home in this city.

Miss Lulu G. Watkins who has been traveling through Europe during the past few months has returned to her home in this city delighted with her trip.

Miss Valley Hisey is visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. V. Poland, on Prince street.

The Dog Lists.

More than half a dozen times in the past two months attention has been called to the dogs prowling around the streets during the days and making the nights unpleasant by their barking and howling. That hundreds of dogs are unlicensed is evidenced by the fact that only 709 licenses have been issued up to this day and at the same period last year 760 had been issued. Eight hundred in the year 1902 and as many in 1903 shows that many persons are evading this tax, or the dog population has greatly decreased. The Auditor is now preparing a list of those who have paid to keep dogs. These names will be printed and furnished to the police force. Ample opportunity has been afforded every one to take out a license or dispose of his dog. The fine is $3 or $5 for keeping unlicensed dogs, and in addition to the fine the license will still have to be paid. It is stated that the police force will report owners of unlicensed dogs, and the Police Justice says the law will be enforced by the imposition of fines.

Affairs at the Station House.

There was no session of the Police Court this morning, Justice Caton being absent from the city. The court will convene at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

There were two cases on the docket this morning. George Patterson was arrested yesterday by Chief Goods and Officer Roberts charged with assaulting W. Thomas. He left collateral for his appearance.

Andrew Whiting, colored, was arrested yesterday by Officer Beach charged with stealing two watermelons in the market house.

Mayor Paff has instructed the police to stop boys from bathing in the river in the day time. This action should have been taken long ago. During the summer it is alleged that nude young men have occasioned much annoyance to passengers on excursion steamers passing in the vicinity of Fishtown early in the evening.

Alexandria County Day.

As has heretofore been stated in the Gazette, Wednesday, September 5th, will be known as "Alexandria County Day" at Washington Luna Park. The purpose of this event is to raise funds for a library for all public schools in Alexandria county. An elaborate programme has been arranged which will include athletic sports in the morning and a balloon ascension in the afternoon by one of the most famous aeronauts in the world. This man comes to Luna Park after having appeared in all of the principal cities and at all of the big open-air fairs in both this country and in Europe. It is reported that he will make two ascensions, that of the evening being augmented by the introduction of a magnificent fireworks display from the balloon when over 300 feet in the air. During the evening Manager George E Gill has promised a programme more varied and interesting than any of the features that have been offered since the opening of Luna Park. All of the attractions, including rides on the merry-go-round, chute-the-chute, trip to Rockaway and other moving attractions will be in operation. In the dancing pavilion during the evening the "shadow dances," which proved so popular on several previous occasions will be offered as an added feature of the dancing programme. The varied colored calcium lights will be seen to play on the dancers as they whirl around the floor. There have been no less than five committees appointed to look after the great programme of events. Special provisions have been made for affording shelter and other accommodations for horses, carriages or any other conveyance that visitors may use to get to the park. Over 20,000 tickets have been distributed and these are being disposed of throughout the entire county. It is estimated that during the day there will be no less than 35,000 people pass thorugh the gates of Luna Park.

Death of an Old Resident.

Miss Lucy Williams died this morning at the residence of her nephew, Mr. George S. French, at an advanced age. Miss Williams had been a resident of this city for the past third of a century and had a large circle of friends. For years she had been blind, but her affliction in no way dampened her Christian spirit and kind and loving disposition. Throughout life she had been of a cheerful nature, and her many friends and acquaintances will regret to hear of her death. She was a daughter of the late Maj. I. H. Williams, of Culpeper, and a granddaughter of Gen. Slaughter of revolutionary fame.

Tournament

The annual tournament was held at Marshall Hall, Md., yesterday. The victor was William L. Herron, of Washington, who last night crowned Miss Audrey Palmer, of Georgetown, as Queen of Love and Beauty. Tom H. Head, of Munson Hill, Fairfax county, had the honor of crowning the first maid of honor; Robert H. Mercer, of Pleasant Valley, Md., the second maid; Lee Amos, of Howard county, Md., the third maid, and J. A. Herron, of Washington, the fourth maid. Mr. Fred Posey was the orator of the day.

Excursion Postponed.

The complimentary excursion to River View to have been given to Sunday school children of this city yesterday by Capt. Randall was postponed on account of the unpropitious weather. It will take place tomorrow. The tickets heretofore issued will be good on that occasion.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The mercury at noon registered 82°, while the humidity continues intense.

There were more showers of rain last night. The temperature today has been sultry and the weather threatening.

A colored boy had one of his legs seriously injured on the turntable of the Southern Railway depot early last night. He was attended by Dr. Moore.

Mrs. Melvin Simpson, wife of Mr. Melvin Simpson, who is visiting in Richmond, was thrown from a traction car in that city yesterday and painfully injured.

Dr. Moore reports that the colored man Holland, who was recently shot by an officer in Fairfax county, and who was brought to the Alexandria Hospital is recovering.

Ticket No. 391, held by Harvey W. Summers, won the prize last night at the drawing that took place at the Lyceum Hall. The holder of the lucky number will receive two round trip tickets to Norfolk, given by Fitzgerald Council, K. of C., in connection with their recent excursion.

Girl Whips Magistrate

Lucy Grove, a young woman who is employed in the family of Mr. Wedderburn, at Wedderburn, Fairfax, county, horsewhipped Magistrate August Henning at Vienna, yesterday before a crowd of residents of the community. The young woman has been in the employ of the Wedderburn family for a year or more. Some time ago a man named Eugene Hale, it is said, attempted a criminal assault upon Miss Grove, who, acting on the advice of her employer, caused his arrest. Miss Grove, who is with out father or brother, says that Justice Henning had not only decided against her in the case, but that he had also made derogatory remarks to various persons regarding her character. Acting upon the advice of some of her friends, Miss Grove went to Vienna from Wedderburn on an electric car, taking with her a rawhide whip. A car load of her friends followed in the next car. She secreted herself in the post office and telephoned for the magistrate. When he came to the postoffice the girl emerged from her place of concealment and gave him a severe trouncing before he could reach her. The magistrate, however, grabbed the girl finally, and in doing so dislocated her arm and then struck her. Eye-witnesses say that he would have severely injured her but for the fact that the women in the crowd interfered and made him desist. There was great excitement in the neighborhood. Mr. Henning was a resident of Alexandria for a number of years. During the civil war he was a clerk in the commissary department. At the close of the conflict he obtained another position under the government. He at one time taught German in an Alexandria institution of learning. About fifteen years ago he moved to Fairfax county. He is now serving his second term as Justice of the Peace.

The Martial Spirit.

Mitchell's Station, Va., August 27.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

Well knowing your high reputation for fair dealing I hope you will pardon me for calling your attention to an apparent injustice done my deceased brother, Capt. David L. Smoot, who went out as first lieutenant in Kemper's Battery and who succeeded Captain Kemper as captain upon Kemper's promotion and served in that capacity until the surrender. Capt. Kemper's brother served as lieutenant, which fact can be learned from any old Alexandria member of the battery. Very respectfully,
J. R. SMOOT.

[The above refers to an article published in the Gazette recently taken from the Charlottesville Progress which had commented upon an article in the Gazette concerning the decline of the martial spirit in Alexandria.]

Plan of Wedding Changed.

New Brunswick, N. J., Aug. 30.—Because the bride-elect's brother had been fatally injured in a trolley accident a few hours before, the plans for the wedding gaiety at the marriage of Ruth Sebole and Edwin Hornby last night were changed and they were married quietly at the parsonage of the Putna Methodist Church.

The Gans-Nelson Fight.

Goldfield, Nev., Aug. 30.—If Joe Gans loses the lightweight championship to Battling Nelson next Monday afternoon, the knockout punch will have been delivered by Manager Billy Nolan before ever the men step into the ring. At least this is the belief of everyone in Goldfield today who has been a witness to the tactics employed for Nelson for the last two weeks. No'an has set out to have Gans step into the ring as nearly a mental and physical wreck as is possible to get him in. In insisting upon 123 pounds ringside many believe Nolan has set a condition that Gans could only meet by the amputation of a leg. In discussing his change today, Nelson said: "I realize that this is not going to be any pink tea and I have plenty of respect for Gans's courage. I have been up against the science game before and have discounted it with a few good punches. I may have to repeat. Every one says that Gans has a yellow streak. If he has, I am going to show it up before the fifth round." Gans also had an opinion which was: "If I get a square deal from the referee, I will win on the bit. According to all the dope I have it on Nelson at every turn. I don't take any stock in this iron jaw talk and if I can slap one over the front of the Dane's face in the first round or in the fourteenth, I am going to end the scrap. I can't see Nelson as anything better than a 10 to 1 shot."

Five Thousand Indians Revolt.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 30.—Five thousand Indians on the Babine river and lake, at the head waters of the Skeena river and 190 miles from the coast, have broken out in open revolution, and a call has been sent to Vancouver for militia. The hostilities occurred because the federal fisheries officials attempted to break down the barriers the Indians erected across the river and streams leading to Babine lake and other spawning grounds of the sockeye salmon. Late yesterday a rush call came from Hazelton, at the head of navigation on Skeena river, for a force of militia. The message announced that a threatened conflict between the government officials and Indians had occurred and that the former had been forced to retire, because of the superior number of the Indians. News of the trouble was wired to Ottawa, and Premier McBride, of British Columbia. Action on the part of the authorities in response to the call is now awaited. The scene of the trouble is 500 miles from Vancouver in a wild region.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

During the heated term the store will close at 5 o'clock; Saturdays at 1.

Continuation of Our
Semi-annual Clearance Sale.

These twice-yearly Stock Clearance Sales are as important a part of our business as the opening of new goods when a new season comes. Were it not so we would not be able to start a new season with an absolutely new stock. And so at this time the whole store brings forward its special offerings. Many are not advertised, because lots are too small to meet the demand that would come from such an announcement. But these things dot every section of the store.

All surpluses, all broken assortments, odds and ends and the like must go for the sake of their room, hence we have made the prices extraordinarily low, and if you have any particular want, the chances are you can satisfy it with a smaller outlay than at any other time of the year. Rare bargains all over the house.

THURSDAY EVENING, AUG. 30, 1906.

Conditions in Cuba.

Havana, Aug. 30.—The town of Cruces in Santa Clara province has been raided by the insurgents. The raiding party was headed by the mayor of the city, who went over to the insurgents two days ago.

The mayor returned today with a party of 100 men, sacked all the stores and carried away supplies of provisions, merchandise and medical supplies.

Insurgents also entered the town of Colosacion yesterday but offered no violence to any one.

Explanation of the inactivity of the insurgents during the last few days has been offered by a revolutionary supporter who says the rebels are lying quiet to allow the government to walk into a trap which has been laid for it.

The plan of the rebels is to bottle up the government forces in the mountains of Pinar del Rio province. As soon as the bulk of the government army has been sent to the province in pursuit of Pino Guerra, the revolutionary informant says, an army will spring up behind the loyalists and they will be cut off from returning to the city, and be caught between the two forces.

Then insurgents in the eastern provinces who have been awaiting the signal to rise will organize an army which will move on Havana.

Havana, Aug. 30.—The governor of Matanzas telegraphed yesterday afternoon that Gen. Garcia had arrived at San Pedro de Mayabon with Col. Leiseca and Maj. Almeida, the two chief lieutenants of ex-Congressman Carlos Medieta's forces, who voluntarily surrendered to Garcia with their arms, ammunition, and horses. This is considered to be a serious blow to the insurrection in Santa Clara.

Charged with Stealing a Diamond Ring.

Brest, France, Aug. 30.—The story of an alleged attempt on the part of an angry husband to ruin the man who urged his wife to have a commission appointed to investigate his sanity and to have the victim adjudged a thief, brought to life a string of charges made by Countess Rodell du Horsics against the well known Russian diplomat, Alexandre Greger, of stealing a valuable diamond ring.

The diamond, a famous blue gem, which once belonged to the French Crown collection, disappeared from the Countess' chateau at Kerstears and was later found in the luggage of M. Greger. He was charged by the Countess with stealing the ring. M. Greger asserts his innocence, and says he is the victim of revenge on the part of the Count du Horsics and that the Count had the ring placed in his luggage for the purpose of ruining him. Count du Horsics is insane.

The present Countess du Horsics, who is the sister of Mrs. Charles Post, of New York, in her early years married a lawyer named Burnett Stears. After his death she married Count du Horsics, regilding his battered coat of arms, with her income of $20,000 a year. M. Greger has resigned his diplomatic position as the result of the scandal in which he has been involved and he told the correspondent of the Publishers Press that it is his intention to move to the United States as soon as his honor has been cleared of the charge made against him.

M. Greger, it has developed also, is married to an American woman whom he met while he was attached to the Russian legation in Washington. She is standing by her husband in the present trouble in which he is involved.

The New Rate Law.

A tremendous legal conflict between the vested railroad interests of the country and the Interstate Commerce Commission as a result of the new rate bill which went into effect at midnight Monday night, is predicted in Chicago railroad circles. President E. P. Ripley, of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad system, voiced the keynote of the impending clash when he said:

"We are not violating in any particular the spirit of the Elkins or Hepburn acts, but it will be a physical impossibility for us to obey the letter of the law in every particular. The members of Congress who drafted and approved the interstate commerce act were almost wholly ignorant of the railroad business.

"The commission requires that we shall post in a conspicuous place for the benefit of shippers the adjusted tariffs and extra charges for switching, refrigerating, elevator charges, etc.

"If we comply with that provision it would take all eternity to compile the figures and make a book a hundred times the size of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. That shows how much our lawmakers understand the difficulty under which we labor."

Another Uprising.

Berlin, Aug. 30.—Another uprising in the Baltic provinces of Russia, broader in its scope than the revolt of last year, when a republic was established, and fighting continued for months, before the government could suppress the revolution, is predicted by German residents of that region, who are returning to their old homes in Germany in great numbers. These refugees declare that the preparations for the armed uprising have about been completed and say the storm is likely to break any day. The coming revolt, they predict, will be much more serious than any former outbreak, and they are confident much bloodshed is sure to result. So thoroughly convinced are the German citizens in that section of Russia that terrible scenes are soon to be enacted there that they are fleeing from the country by hundreds. They are selling their property at any price they can obtain for it, in many cases offers of one-fourth the value of land being accepted in order to get away. A most complete exodus of Germans from the provinces of Russia has taken place.

You need a pill? Use DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Do not sicken or gripe, but results are sure. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

To Stamp Out the Revolution.

Warsaw, Poland, Aug. 30.—The most rigorous repressive measures yet resorted to by the government in dealing with the revolution are to be instituted in Warsaw. Orders have been received from St. Petersburg to begin a ruthless crusade to stamp out the terrorists, whose activity has thrown the city into a panic. What amounts practically to the establishment of martial law is to be tried. Soldiers are to supersede the police and trouble makers will be dealt with severely. All the streets will be guarded by troops and every person suspected of having revolutionary sympathies will be arrested and held indefinitely. Orders to shoot to kill whenever they are molested in the slightest manner have been issued to the soldiers, and they are to receive war pay in order to make them merciless in the discharge of the duty of being public butchers placed upon them. General Orloff, who "pacified" the Baltic provinces in the outbreaks there a year ago, is reported to have been directed by the Czar to take command of the troops in Warsaw.

Deny Slemp's Denial.

The Bristol Daily Herald publishes a lengthy article in reply to the denial made at Marion last Monday week by Congressman Slemp of the charge that he was drunk and disorderly at the recent democratic convention held in Bristol.

The Herald produces the testimony of prominent citizens, including one minister, democrats and republicans, who say positively that Col. Slemp was offensively drunk in the convention hall. An officer testified that the congressman fell on the stairway while trying to enter the hall.

The Herald defies Colonel Slemp to come to Bristol and deny the charge of intoxication.

He Was in Trouble.

"I was in trouble, but found a way out of it, and I'm a happy man again, since Dr. King's New Life Pills cured me of chronic constipation," says E. W. Goodloe, 107 St. Louis St., Dallas, Tex. Guaranteed satisfactory. Price 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

FINANCIAL

HALF OF YOUR MONEY IS SPENT FOOLISHLY.

Why not save it! Try today—it's simple. Cultivate the habit of economy. A little money saved now works wonders later! And 3 PER CENT. INTEREST compounded makes the wonder grow. The dollars that get away from you each week or month would soon make a snug sum to your credit in a Savings Account with this corporation, so prepare for the unexpected now—don't wait until it happens. Deposit a portion of your income with us, you can draw on it in time of need. We make it a rule to give careful and immediate attention to all business—all requests have careful and prompt attention and every courtesy and accommodation that safe and conservative banking can afford is extended to all customers. We pay interest on time deposits and solicit household, personal and professional accounts as well as the banking business of commercial establishments. We act as executor, administrator and trustee. Execute fidelity, contract, official and judicial bonds, and have safe deposit boxes for rent at reasonable rates. Call to see us.
